DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of invention claimed in claims 1-15 in the reply filed on 3/31/08 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10, 14-15, and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by BARBUT et al (5,769,816).

As to claim 1, BARBUT (Figs. 6-7 and reproduced partial Fig. 7 above) discloses a filter device having a first given perimeter defined by rib (351), entrapment device (seal 317, spokes 316) having a selective opening defined by a perimeter of seal (317) to define a second given perimeter. The selective opening has at least one spoke (316) as a restriction element, which prevent or hinder a back flow of debris. The distal side of entrapment device and the proximal side of the filter define a chamber for entrapping debris from the vascular system of a patient.

As to claim 2, BARBUT (Figs 6) discloses cannula (350).

As to claim 3, BARBUT (Figs. 6-7) discloses deployable frame (380, 383).

As to claims 4-5, BARBUT (Figs. 6-7) discloses compliant outer cuff or seal (317) surrounds deployable frame (380, 383).

Art Unit: 3773

Art Unit: 3773

As to claim 6, BARBUT (Figs. 6-7) discloses radially inflatable cuff or seal (317).

As to claim 7, BARBUT (Figs. 6-7) discloses fitter device comprising filter bag (318).

As to claims 14-15, BARBUT device includes two directions (systolic and diastolic) of blood flowing, one from proximal side to distal side and another from distal side toward proximal side.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-15 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,692,513 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they include main structural limitations of the present invention, such as a filter device, an entrapment device, a cannula.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-15 have been considered but are not convincing.

It is clearly that restriction elements/spokes 316 are operatively provided to change the size of the selective opening defined by a perimeter of seal 317 from an expanded condition to filter a blood flow (Fig. 7) to a collapsed condition (Fig. 6) for removal of the filter from a blood vessel.

Conclusion

This is a RCE of applicant's earlier Application No. 10/772,782. All claims are substantially drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
